

JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE
EVALUATION COMMISSION

JPEC

2016 Retention Report to Voters • Statewide

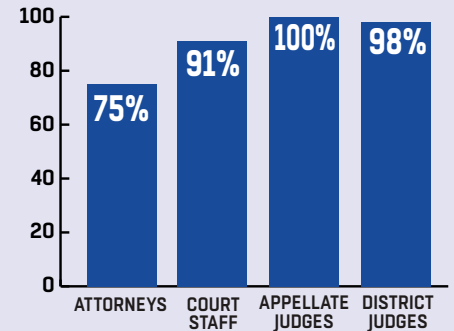

The New Mexico Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission makes the following summary recommendations to voters:

Honorable Barbara J. Vigil
New Mexico Supreme Court

RETAIN

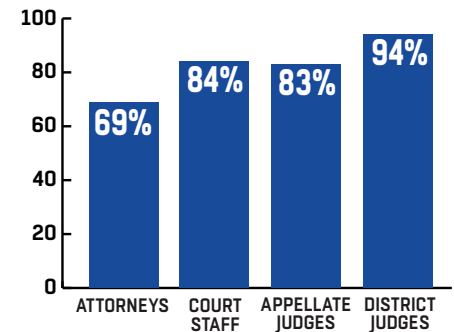

Of those surveyed, 75% of attorneys, 91% of court staff, 100% of appellate judges and 98% of district judges recommended retaining Justice Vigil.

Honorable Tim L. Garcia
New Mexico Court of Appeals

RETAIN

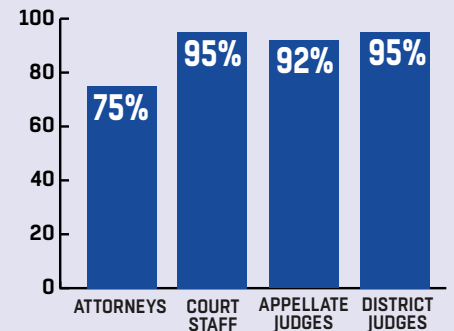

Of those surveyed, 69% of attorneys, 84% of court staff, 83% of appellate judges and 94% of district judges recommended retaining Judge Garcia.

Honorable Jonathan B. Sutin
New Mexico Court of Appeals

RETAIN

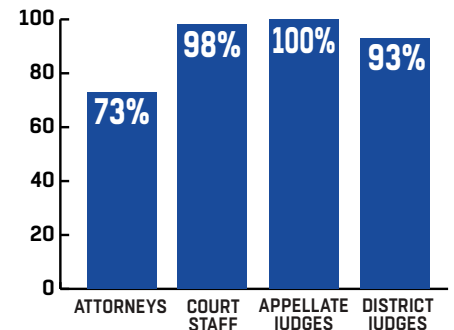

Of those surveyed, 75% of attorneys, 95% of court staff, 92% of appellate judges and 95% of district judges recommended retaining Judge Sutin.

Honorable M. Monica Zamora
New Mexico Court of Appeals

RETAIN

Of those surveyed, 73% of attorneys, 98% of court staff, 100% of appellate judges and 93% of district judges recommended retaining Judge Zamora.

ABOUT JPEC AND OUR REPORT TO VOTERS

The New Mexico Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission (JPEC) is a nonpartisan commission that surveys groups that have contact with each judge to make our recommendations to voters. We also rely on personal interviews with each justice or judge standing for retention along with select courtroom observations.

JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE
EVALUATION COMMISSION

Connect with

JPEC

www.nmjpec.org

1-800-687-3417